

GEC 9-LIFE, WORKS AND WRITINGS OF RIZAL LEARNING MODULE I

TITLE OF THE MODULE- CHAPTER 1: THE STUDY OF RIZAL COURSE AND REPUBLIC ACT NO. 1425

LEARNING ACTIVITIES

I. MULTIPLE CHOICE. Write the correct answer on the space provided before the number.

_____1. The Republic Act that requires the compulsory teaching of Rizal Course and the lives of the other Filipino patriot's is _____?

- a. R.A 1234 b. R.A 1432 c. R.A 1423 d. R.A 1425

_____2. Rizal dedicated his novel Noli Me Tangere to _____?

- a. The three martyr priests
b. The motherland
c. His mother
d. The Filipino heroes.

_____3. The Rizal law mandates all institution to study the Life, Works and Writings of Rizal.

- a. True b. False c. partly true d. none of the above

_____4. Recto was the original author of the Rizal law. This makes Rizal's Noli and El fili compulsory reading in all universities and colleges.

- a. Only the first statement is correct and true.
b. Only the second statement is correct and true.
c. Both statements are true and correct.
d. Both statements are untrue and incorrect

_____5. What was the date of birth of Dr. Jose Rizal?

- a. June 18, 1961
b. June 18, 1861
c. June 19, 1869
d. June 19, 1861

II. ESSAY

1. Why study the life and works of Rizal?

We need to study the life and works of Rizal because of its great benefit. It would benefit the Filipino youth as well as the whole nation to acquire traits of having courage, determination, high sense of relationship, nationalism, and patriotism.

Aside from the fact that it is a mandatory subject and was mandated by Republic Act no. 1425 also known as Rizal Law enacted last June 12, 1956, Rizal's ideas towards education are relevant then and until now. He was committed to education, learning new skills, writing, and inspiring other Filipinos to dream big and aspire for a better life.

His contributions to society serve as a big foundation for the future of our country. Henceforth, to make sure the legacy of Jose Rizal will not be forgotten, everyone should give attention, importance, and take seriously the subject matter to attain its purpose and aim.

2. How would reading Rizal's novel impart patriotism?

ASSESSMENT TASK

1. Writing exercise: Compare and contrast the views of those in favor and against R.A 1425, considering the context of 1950's. Would similar argument still have impact today?

Affirmative:	Negative:
--------------	-----------

2. Reflect on your secondary education: Did your school comply with RA 1425? How effective is Rizal Law in instilling patriotism and nationalism among secondary school students?
