

Statements from the Article	Agree	Disagree	Explanation
1. It has been observed that in studying Rizal, Filipinos seem to portray him as somewhat of a God.		✓	Dr. Rizal is one of us and he doesn't seem to portray as somewhat of a God. Filipinos see Dr. Rizal as Hero and not a God who inspires them to stand free and face the world with head high. To love the country by fighting for those who want to steal using his writings. He believes that we don't need violence to end the chaos around us, we just need to be confident enough that we don't want to be controlled by anyone, especially to our own country that's why he encourages everyone to be educated because he knows that education was powerful.
2. Rizal suffered as much as his countrymen.	✓		Dr. Rizal suffered as well to other heroes who fought for our country the difference was that he sojourned abroad and travel the different country to sharpen his knowledge to prepare his novel because this novel was not just a simple it sees he believes that this novel will be his voice to open the eyes of the Filipino's about what is truly happening in our beloved country. The novels succeed to be distributed to Filipinos and be the voice of what is truly happening but the sad part was that Dr. Jose Rizal knew that his life will get in great danger.
3. Rizal became a hero because he responded to the challenge of conquering himself and he succeeded.	✓		Rizal became a Hero due to that he accepted the fact that one's he distributes his novels by that time he was willing to take the responsibility of his action the consequence he needs to face when he goes home. Dr.

			Jose Rizal gave his own life to save ours that lead who we are today, free.
4. Taking up Rizal course for credits...can be tiresome business in the youth. If reading and discussing the texts can't be fun, but boring, Rizal will be nothing more than a label for beds, matches, cements, and corporations.		✓	Taking this will enlighten us about the value of life, appreciation, the character of Rizal, and many more. Besides, I would like to emphasize how we can be heroes in our small act like we don't need to sacrifice our lives to become a hero.

I. Deepening

Description: In this section, students are expected to process and deepen their understanding about the topic and ideas in the article.

Direction: Based on your own understanding, explain the statements from the article below.

Put a check on agree or disagree if you accept or not the statements.

Then, explain your stand in a precise and brief discussion.