
B. If you were to talk to Aguinaldo, what would you like to tell him? What would you ask him? Write an open letter addressed to the President of the First Philippine Republic, Emilio Aguinaldo.

Dear President Emilio Aguinaldo,

Good day, I would like to ask if how bless are you in ruling the country, named Philippines? Is it worthy? Is it hard? Or is it difficult. I would like also to know why did you chose or decided to enter the position of being a president? I am very conscious about how you defended and handled the serious things that happened to the Philippines, especially problems. I would like you to know that I really admire you for having the strong, courageous, and bravery heart to find and to solve the problem about drugs. Every country needs a leader who can help them to resolve problems in the country and you are one of the presidents who bring light to the dark.

Mr. President I know this is too much to ask for, but please do an action towards climate change because we all know that it is a big problem that the Philippines is facing. The Philippines is highly vulnerable to the impacts of climate change, including sea level rise, increased frequency of extreme weather events, rising temperatures and extreme rainfall because of this many people were affected and many animals are dying and please make also an action towards the government support, especially to those students who don't have enough money to support their education because many students who quite education because of lack of money.