

Essay

1. Do you agree with Martin Heidegger in his idea that technology should only be seen as one of the approaches in perceiving truth? What are other possible approaches we should consider?
- No, Technology would never be one of the approaches in perceiving the truth. There are two possible approaches to perceive Truth according to Western Philosophy, namely: (1) Reason; and (2) the Will to Power.