Rizal, Del Pilar, and Jaena

- ◆ Jaena and Rizal's withdrawal from La Solidaridad was caused by disagreement in ideals.
- ◆ This left Del Pilar to manage the newspaper.
- ◆ Many believed that it would be better to be a part of a new organization with one goal than have personal goals.

Spanish Cortes

- ◆ One of the predominant reforms lobbied by Filipinos was representation in Spanish Cortes.
- ◆ This move would have given Filipinos a voice in the Spanish government.
- ◆ Around this time, Rizal was preoccupied with the hacenderos of Calamba.

Rizal's Situation

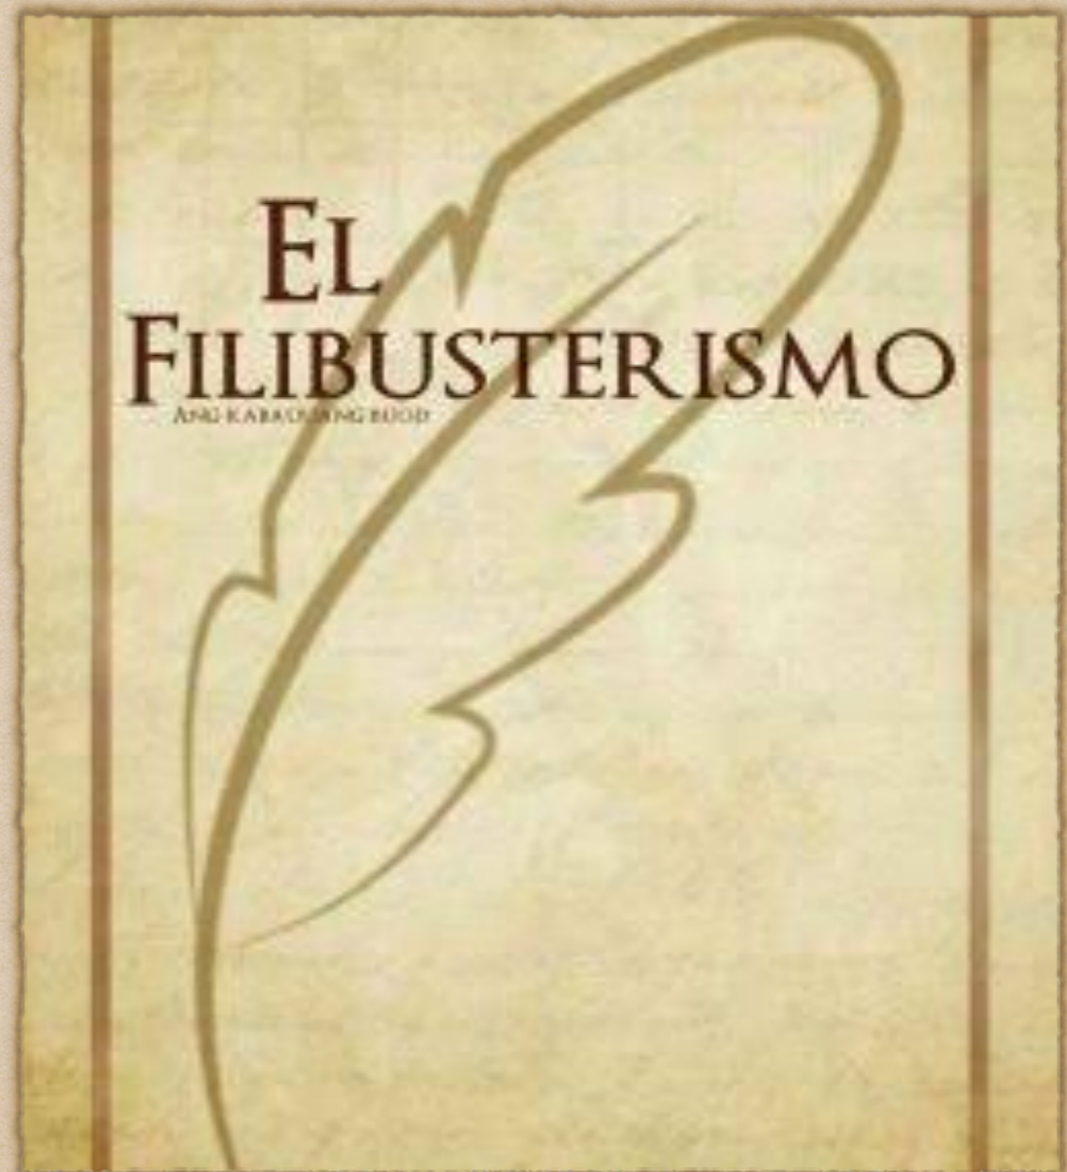

- ◆ Rizal's mother and sister were arrested in Manila.
- ◆ After several days in imprisonment, they were asked to go back to the courts in their province.

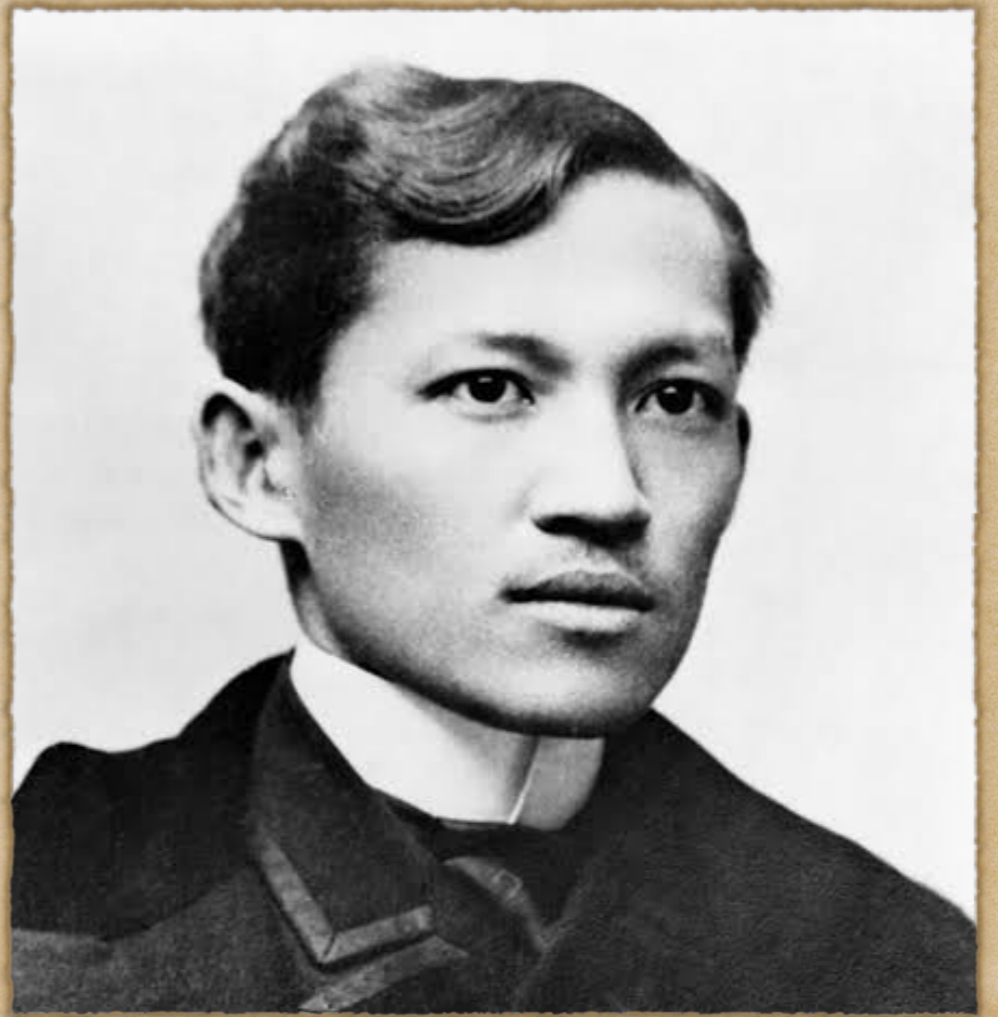

Rizal's Letter

- ◆ “If our countrymen hope in us here in Europe, they certainly mistaken... The field of battle is the Philippines: there is where it should be.”

After El Filibusterismo

- ◆ All copies were shipped to the Philippines.
- ◆ Rizal set course back to Manila.
- ◆ Upon arriving he established...

La Liga Filipina

- ◆ A secret society that embodied the ideas Rizal presented in El Filibusterismo.
- ◆ This included the calls for the provision of mutual protection, defense against all injustices, and promotion of instruction and education among Filipinos.
