Characters	End Story
Simoun	Simoun was cured by Padre Florentino. Although he was dying already when he got to Padre Florentino, the priest was able to cure him. Padre Florentino talked to Simoun and made him realize what he did was wrong that caused too much trouble. Simoun on the other hand, come back to his senses. He realized that revolution is not the way to get revenge to the Spaniards. So he uses all his remaining wealth to correct everything what he had done. He used his money to put up schools which can cater the Filipino students. He made reforms that will help the Filipinos. After that, he talked to the Filipinos and told them that what he did will give them lessons that revolution is not the proper way in getting revenge because it will just shed more blood and many people will die. After that, he went to the city to find his beloved Maria Clara. At first, it was difficult for him to find Maria Clara. However, he did not give up until he met Maria Clara who was just passing by. He approached her and hugged her tightly. Maria Clara on the other hand missed Simoun that much that's why she cried while hugging him. Simoun brought her to his place and gave her food to eat. Eventually Maria Clara lived with Simoun. The two of them became happy and became the leader that helps the Filipinos who were abused by the Spaniards.
Maria Clara	Maria Clara did not die in the story. Instead she was able to escape in the convent. She went into the woods and bumped into Juli who is also escaping from the cruel friars. Juli talked to Maria Clara and convinced her to get revenge to the cruel and heartless friars who abused them. They planned everything and even got a Plan B if their original plan will fail. Everything is set and they just waited for the right timing. There was a gathering of all the friars in the convent. And that gathering is the perfect timing to execute their plan. They plan on getting revenge to the friars that abused them by planting bomb that can kill all the people in that particular area. They hide in the bush and waited for the midnight because that is the right time that the bomb will explode. A few hours after, the bomb exploded and killed all the people there. Maria Clara and Juli hugged each other because their plan was a success. They felt at peace because they know that no one will harm them. After that they, they went on

	separate ways. Maria Clara went to the city to find Simoun. She found him and they lived together afterwards. While Juli, she was found by her father, Kabesang Tales and they become so wealthy because of the business they were able to put up.
Basilio	Basilio was shot by one of the guardia civil. However, his wound was not that deep that is why he was able to cure himself. After that, he could not find Simoun but he tried to search him everywhere. Basilio do not have anything with him. He went to the streets hoping he will find Simoun there. For several days, he wasn't able to eat something. As he sat down under the shade of the tree, he remembered what happened to his mother and brother. Basilio felt so hopeless. He felt hopeless because he had nowhere to go. He decided to go the woods to visit the graveyard of his mother. However, on his way there, he got tripped and fall into the deep cliff. and because of that, Basilio died.
Padre Salvi	Padre salvi attended in a gathering of all the friars. They were all happy in that event. So much food was provided for everyone. Padre Salvi enjoyed his night talking to other friars and he even boasted everything that he got to them. He ate a lot of food there and enjoyed drinking alcohol with the others. All the friars there really enjoyed as if that was their last night. They even gamble to make themselves entertained. Minutes before midnight, Padre Salvi went to the long table to get something to eat. He didn't know that the bomb planted by Maria Clara and Juli was putted under the table. Minutes after, the bomb exploded. It killed all the friars in the convent especially Padre Salvi, who turns into ashes immediately because he was near the bomb that exploded. That bomb that was exploded killed all of them.
Kabesang Tales	Kabesang Tales was kidnapped by the bandits. After a week with them, he planned to escape. He familiarized everything around him. He planned where to go if he will escape from them. A day before his escape, he went to a place where the treasure of the bandits was hidden. He took everything that he can take with him. After that day, he just waited for midnight to execute his escape. Successfully, he was able to escape from the hands of the bandits. He even escapes with the treasure that he took beforehand. He went to the city and use the treasure that he got to start over again. He searched for her daughter, Juli everywhere. 3 days of searching, he eventually found Juli. Juli told him everything she went through and their revenge to the friars. Kabesang Tales used his money to start a business with Juli.
