

1. What does the document want to convey?

The document wants to convey is that, the document in which Filipino Revolutionary forces under General Emilio Aguinaldo proclaimed the sovereignty and independence of the Philippines. He believed that such a move would inspire the people to fight more eagerly against the Spaniards which lead the foreign countries to recognize the independence of the country/

2. How did the revolutionaries regard Aguinaldo based on the document?

They recognized, approved, and ratify the Dictatorship established by Don Emilio Aguinaldo whom the revere as the Supreme head of the nation, in conviction that he has been an instrument chosen by God, inspite of his humble origin to effectuate the redemption of this unfortunate country as foretoid by Dr. Don Jose Rizal in his magnificent verses which he composed in his prison prior to his execution, liberating it from the Yoke of Spanish domination.

3. According to the document, what does the symbols in the Philippine flag represent?

The white triangle signifies the distinctive emblem of the famous society of the "Katipunan", which by means by its blood compact inspired the masses to rise in revolution; the three stars signifies the three islands of this archipelago namely, Luzon, Visayas, and Panay where the revolutionary movement started. The sun represents the gigantic steps made by the sons of the country along the path of progress and civilization. The eight rays signifying the eight provinces namely, Manila, Cavite, Bulacan, Pampanga, Nuebe Ecija, Bataan, Laguna, and Batangas which declared themselves in a state of war as soon as the first revolt was initiated. The colors Blue, Red and White, commends the flag of the United States of North America as a manifest of our profound gratitude towards the great Nation for disinterested protection which lent us continue lending us.

4. How did the Filipinos regard the United States according to the document?

The Filipinos regard the United States through the color of flag which is Blue, White and Red that commends flag of the United States of North America, as a manifest of their profound gratitude towards this Great Nation for disinterested protection which leads and continues to lend help to the Filipinos.

5. What is the importance of this document in this history of our country?

It proclaims the sovereignty and independence of the Philippines from the colonial rule of the Spanish Empire that gives freedom to the people of the Philippines. It also develops their levels of self-awareness and sensitivity towards others which teaches them to help those around them. It teaches them self-motivation as they have the freedom to find their own reasons to achieve.