

LET REVIEWER - SOCIOLOGY

1. The adoption of scientific techniques to control and manipulate environment such as modern methods for farming and fishing is called

- A. social change
- B. cultural change
- C. technological change
- D. discovery change

2. Heavily sanctioned folkway which no one dares to question because they embody moral laws are called

- A. beliefs
- B. mores
- C. customs
- D. tradition

3. What is that inevitable force in history which takes place from time to time?

- A. change
- B. progress
- C. development
- D. evolution

4. Nora Aunor became a legend in the showbusiness because of her talent, determination and hard work. What role does this illustrate?

- A. achieved role
- B. ascribed role
- C. hereditary role
- D. temporary role

5. Pinning veil around the bride and the groom / exchange of rings, releasing of doves, etc. during wedding ceremony show that culture

- A. symbolic
- B. historical
- C. continuous
- D. changeless

6. Aling Maria has taught her daughter how to prepare good and delicious desserts from local fruits and vegetables. What cultural transmission process is this?

- A. observation
- B. acculturation
- C. enculturation
- D. indoctrination

7. Mr. Francisco was teaching something on mores, folkways, customs and beliefs in his Social Studies class. What was his lesson about?

- A. material culture
- B. non-material culture
- C. tangible culture
- D. hereditary culture

8. It was the first day of school . Miss Dale Rosa prepared activities which will make her Grade III children sing, play, talk, learn and introduce themselves to the class. What process did the teacher emphasize?

- A. enculturation
- B. indoctrination
- C. socialization
- D. acculturation

9. Mildred, an accountant, who now lives with a married man was disowned by her family and friends. This punishment is a form of _____.

- A. isolation
- B. ostracism
- C. deportation
- D. character assassination

10. When a certain culture is acceptable to one group and questionable to others, it shows that:

- A. culture is borrowed
- B. culture is varied
- C. culture is a shared product
- D. culture is relative

11. The teaching and learning of religion and values mostly make use of

- A. enculturation
- B. culturation
- C. indoctrination
- D. acculturation

12. Which of the following situations presents a value conflict?

- A. The teacher pressures the student to get higher grades.
- B. The teacher and his students have better class standing as their priorities.
- C. The teacher and the administrator follow a set of criteria in giving grades
- D. The teacher has students whose parents want their children to obtain higher grades than what they are capable of getting.

13. Miss Santiago is a stickler for cleanliness and orderliness in the classroom. For this, she asks her students to

- A. do the same even when they're at home
- B. remove their shoes in entering the classroom.
- C. formulate norms and remind them often to follow these norms.
- D. bring cleaning materials and clean the room before, during, and after classes

14. Which situation shows that a sense of nationhood is exemplified?

- A. When Miss Aguas asked her Grade II students in what country they wish to live, most of them chose Australia.
- B. The class was asked which brand of chocolate they would rather have, no one chose "chocnut."
- C. There is a class program. The girls volunteered to do a "balagtasan"
- D. The boys opted to make a choral rendition of the theme song of the movie "Titanic."

15. Which statement best indicates a balance between responsibility and authority? Miss Soriano has just provided a group activity to her class. While the class is at it, she says...

- A. You can talk as much as you want.
- B. You are forbidden to talk with each other.
- C. I'll send you out of the room if you so much create noise.
- D. You can talk provided you finish the work on time and do not disturb the other group

16. Which of the following behaviors bespeaks of a professional teacher?

- A. Speaks ill of the Filipino ways
- B. Advocates the theme of nationhood
- C. Imparts his personal beliefs and ideology
- D. Seeks the cooperation of the parents for her own interests

17. Which situation shows a desirable relationship between teachers and other groups of people?

- A. Mrs. Magsino, a newly-assigned principal to Barangay San Andres, calls on the barangay chairman.
- B. The new teacher was requested to help the barangay council in a case involving one of his students. He declined.
- C. Mr. Tiglao feels that the barangay council is against his plans; so, he does not consult the council even if there is a need for it.
- D. The principal does her own way of campaigning for cleanliness in and outside the school; she never gets involved with the same campaign of the barangay officials.

18. If you were Mrs. Norman, which action would you take to show a balance between balance and accountability?

- A. Give them more free time during the camping period.
- B. See to it that the older boy scouts take charge of the safety of the group
- C. Let the boy scouts do the scheduled activities during the camping while he had a drinking spree with the other scout masters.
- D. Prepare structured activities that allow independent work among the boy scout groups and rate them according to the agreed criteria.

19-20. Which two characteristics of eastern philosophies might have influenced Philippine education?

- A. Focus on the individual.
- B. The group is above self.
- C. Knowledge comes about through meditation.
- D. Man's way of life must be characterized by harmony.

21. Which situation shows that action is legal but not moral? Public official, entitled to specific privileges from the government

- A. Takes the most economical fare in going about his duties.
- B. Does his job without getting favors from the client he serves.
- C. Reverts back to the public coffers the 10% commission due him.
- D. Buys the latest and the most expensive car model for his department.